

REFLECTIVE JOURNEY PAPER

SENIOR YEAR

---

This paper should describe your personal journey through your time in Financial Services. Every paper will be very different because every person will find different things from their time in the class meaningful. A journey paper research in the library or take a Writing a journey paper is a requires you to spend time course content and experiences. about yourself and share your way than merely a reporting of accomplishments in the course. what ways did this course enhance business, finance, and the world? reflect your personal journey... a and ideas as you end your senior year in high school. It will help you to learn what issues matter to you and what has meaning to your life. You might begin by reviewing the readings, discussions, tests and handouts. As you reflect, you might consider the following open-ended phrases to get yourself started:

I was thinking ... but then I discovered ...

A new idea for me was ...

I disagree that ...

I still don't understand ...

I was interested in the discussion about ...

What this means to me is ...

I'd like to learn more about ...

This may help me later in life because ...

I will remember this class because...

In the future, I want to learn more about ...

The journey paper is worth 400 points. You may structure the paper in whatever way you like, but there are a few rules that you must follow. The paper must be typed – single spaced with 1" margins, using a legible 12-point font – and should be AT LEAST 1 page in length. Papers should have a separate cover page with the title, your name, and date. If the paper does not meet all of these criteria, it will automatically lose 100 points. The completed paper is due on or before Wednesday, May 8, 2019. Late papers will not be accepted for any credit at all (for any excuse). I look forward to reading your papers!
